

A Message from Archangel Michael
Channeled by Jeff Fasano

Would You Like to Have the Life you Say you want?

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you now as you are moving through a passage way in time now that you have opened into your new year of 2016.

You are moving through a pocket of time, a portal and vortex where many multi dimensional energies are flowing through into your earthly plain. These energies are used to open areas and pockets of energy with information for an easy transition. You can integrate and assimilate these energies within your heart space to accelerate the healing process and in releasing and letting go of the old. This will bring you to a more lucid condition in the mental body as to where you are on your human path, spiritual path, emotional and physical path in the third dimensional realm. You will become more lucid in your mind and in your beingness as to where you are and what you say you want. You will become more attuned to the authenticity and transparency of yourself, more attuned to the truth of yourself. This is why we had asked you to look at what has transpired in your life in 2015 and move through this period of time so you can ask yourself; What am I interested in transitioning to?

The question We have for you is; Would you like to have the life you say you want? What is this life? What is the life you say you want? It is time to look at this in honesty, transparency and truth. So We ask you to make a list: What is the Life I Say I Want? Many forget this. Many do not know what this is. Each and every one of you can write this down. What do I want? What is most important for me?

Begin this list with what is most important for you right now where you are in your life. Write down five most important things to you in your life right now. It is now time to have that life.

It is also time to move from indulging and sinking into your personal process. Move from consistently looking at what isn't in your life. This is the reason for writing down the life you say you want. This is what is in your life and can be what is in your life, if in fact you are ready to have what you say you want as opposed to focusing on what isn't in your life.

It is still important to move in a personal process. But it is important to become cognizant, conscious and aware to see if you are indulging into it. And see if you are continually in the personal process and if you are comfortable being there.

It is important for you to see that if in fact you are to take the next step in your soul's divine plan, it is time to now have what you say you want. Whatever this may be for you.

If you find yourself continually looking at what isn't in your life, this is a wonderful way for the ego defense to hold you in the old. If you are continuing to perpetrate old habits, patterns and rituals and continue to ask questions about them it is time to look at this. It is time now to become truthful, transparent, and authentic with yourself. You are in a period of time of transition from the old into the new as an inordinate amount of multi-dimensional energies move in and infiltrate your third dimensional system. Many of you are feeling this. It is re-adjusting the molecular structure of your physical body.

It is important to understand that if in fact it is important for you to release the old, doing this will affect your physical beingness. If you are ready to move out of comfort zones, you will begin to feel it. So We ask you; Are you still in your comfort zones? All of this revolves around your feelings. You are perpetrating the old habits, patterns and rituals to avoid your feelings.

If it is important to have what you say you want, once you identify it feelings will come up, voices will come to you, your ego will move in. It is up to you what you want to commit to in 2016.

Are you comfortable perpetrating old habits, patterns and rituals and behaviors? Continually asking; Why is this continuing to happen to me?

The energies coming into your third dimensional realm are high vibrational assertive energies that will allow you to release what you need to release. They will allow you to reconfigure what you need to reconfigure. Reconfigure the molecular structure of your physical body. Dislodging wounding from your physical body. Releasing aspects of the mental body. It will allow you to clean house. This is what is transpiring with the energy moving in at this time. You may be feeling the effects of this physically.

The energies are moving down from multi-dimensional sources in a counter clockwise fashion. This is allowing you to move and dislodge old memories and old energy that is quite possibly trapped and stuck in your physical body. You might not be aware of this. This could be enlightening you as to where you are trapped and stuck in the old life and may not know it. This is because of the deep rooted blind spot you have to it.

The year of 2016 is about moving into community, harmony and equality with each other, releasing isolation, separation and duality. Each and every one of you say you are looking for intimate relationships with others. The question is; Do you have them? They are right there before you.

If in fact you are open to have what you say you want it is time to open your heart to learn how to receive love. See where you may be pushing away that love and keeping it at arms length. If in fact it is important for you to have what you say you want, it is now time to open your heart to receive it. Open your heart to another and see where you are loved and may not have the capability right now to receive it.

The question We always ask you is; Where Are You?
We will leave you with this: Where are you right now?
