

Archangel Michael Speaks
A Message for April 2018
Channeled by Jeff Fasano

Stepping Into Your Powerfulness

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael, this is Michael and We welcome you as you are moving into aspects of your life, setting up new parameters in your life and opening to the greatness, grandness and powerfulness of the self.

You have exited your month of March and moved into your month of April, the fourth month of 2018, a year of moving into the depth and breadth of your truth to fully express it through the beingness of you. It is about releasing the “doing” in your life and moving into the beingness of who you are.

As you move into your month of April, it is time now to release the power of who you are to the world. Stepping up another level in your life and beginning to express yourself through the powerfulness of yourself. Your powerfulness resides in the knowingness of who you are, the knowingness of your truth, and the resonance of it. This coincides with your mission and purpose in this lifetime.

Your month of April is a month of awakenings, awakenings that pertain to who you are and awakenings in areas of your life. Many are awakening to the powerfulness of the self and the truth of the self, and beginning to express it. You are seeing at this time, transpiring in your world.

What is transpiring is a solidified movement into a new collective consciousness. You are moving into a new collective consciousness within yourself and seeing this transpiring in a broader spectrum in the macrocosm of the world outside of you. It is a consciousness of peace, community, harmony and equality. This new collective consciousness is an expression of itself that emanates from the foundation of truth. This truth is love, community, harmony, and equality and it is now beginning to permeate the mask or the wall around the old world of form.

Now that this truth is being spoken and expressed by many in a new collective consciousness, and breaking down the walls and barriers of the old world of form, it is beginning to trigger all those who are holding that old world of form in place.

As you moved through your year of 2017, We had asked you to look at the world outside of you and what is transpiring in it, to see if it triggering you. We asked, you to see if what is transpiring in the old world of form triggering you. If so, and as you moved through that process, We asked you to see what within you is being triggered. As you look at what is transpiring in the world outside of you, what resonates and what doesn't? This is the question We continually asked you. The answers to these questions reveals your truth. This was the process through 2017 then transitioned into 2018.

As you rediscover and remember the truth of who you are, you then move into the powerfulness and knowingness of who you are, and move to loving, honoring and valuing you. You do this through a committed personal process.

Now, in your month of April, you are ready to stand in the powerfulness of you and bring this truth out into the world. By doing this in the new collective consciousness, you are asking others to look into the mirror to see what they are doing and why they are doing it. This is transpiring in the macrocosm of your world right now and quite possibly in the microcosm of your life as it pertains to what you are doing and who you are being.

Your month of April is a grand awakening of yourself and a time to express the powerfulness of who you are through your truth. As We ask you to do this, many may find themselves moving with trepidation. This is not something that you might do or could do, We are asking you to speak your truth. We suggest that you speak your truth and stand in your powerfulness of you.

As we ask this of you, feelings will come to the surface, see those feelings for what they are, feel them. Then begin to transcend yourself and speak your truth and express it through the powerfulness of who you are.

So the question We have for you is, Who Are you? We have asked this question many times before.

Do you stand in a powerfulness of knowing who you are?
Do you stand in a powerfulness of your truth?

Many may wonder, what the repercussions will be if I begin to fully express the depth and breadth of who I am and my truth standing in my powerfulness?
Many may not understand what their powerfulness is.

Your powerfulness is standing in the depth of the beingness of who you are.

Who are you?
Are you being who you are?
Do you love, honor and value who you are?

So, as you move into your month of April, We suggest that you feel all of your feelings that surface when We suggest to you to begin to speak your truth through the powerfulness of you.

Might you be concerned as to how you will be perceived if you do this?
If I speak my truth, stand in my power, and express myself, I may no longer be loved by those outside of me.

We have asked you many times before to join together in community, harmony and equality with like-minded individuals, like “souled” individuals who share your mission and purpose, your consciousness and awareness to form a new collective consciousness. You are seeing this transpire in your world now. Perhaps it is time to redesign or reform your soul family to see who is committed to move deeper into the depth and breadth of their heart space to bring out the truth to the world.

A grand awakening is before you as you move into your month of April. It is a grand awakening of those who are rediscovering and remembering their truth. As you move through your month of April, it is a month of powerfulness and awakening. It is a month of taking the next step into fully being who you are.

If each and every one of you is being who you are, and reducing the need to do, you can reduce expending an endless amount of energy outside of you that may be fruitless. It is time to see where you can contain the energy of who you are, and begin to connect with those who are in community, harmony and equality in a new collective consciousness, in a new soul family to bring the message to the world.

The question We have for you is, What is that message?

Is the message community, harmony, equality, peace, individuality and all inclusiveness? Is it of love, joy and acceptance?

As you move through your month of April, quite possibly your definition of freedom will shift and change. You will see where the connotation of freedom that is spoken outside of you, may no longer resonate for you.

The grand awakening that is upon you is a new personal freedom. It is to be who you are and express the depth and breadth of your truth and stand in the powerfulness and greatness of you.