A Message for July 2019

A Month to Energetically Detach from the Third Dimension

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you as you are moving through new passageways in your life.

As you open up to your new month of July in 2019, new passageways are opening for you, passageways to the depth and breadth of your heart space. They are passageways to the truth that will open you up to depths that you have never known before within your heart. Passageways that will open you up to love and move you into the depth and breadth of love.

As you move into your month of July, exiting your month of June, you are opening to a new passageway of love. So We ask you to look into your heart and see love within you. See where you are giving and receiving love in balance. See where change might need to occur in your life where the balance of giving and receiving is concerned.

Look now at your power, your personal power. Look at your power to make choices and decisions.

You are moving into a period of restfulness where you can let go of trying to control everything outside of you. Letting go of what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm outside of you. Letting go of the cacophony and the denseness of the third dimensional realm. Letting go in your personal life of what you constantly need to do every single day.

It is a period to see the powerfulness of you and where you stand in your power in the context of what you would call the Spiritual Realm.

Let go of the third dimensional realm and the cause and effect aspects of it. See now where you are in relationship to the God Force, the Christ Consciousness, what you would call the Spiritual Realm. Where are you in relationship to this? Where are you in relationship to God? What is your definition of God?

Your month of July is about taking a step back from the third dimensional realm. Take a step back from what is transitioning in your life that relates to the third dimensional realm and the macrocosm of what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm. Take stock within you where you are in connection to divine spirit, divine love, the divine God Force, the divine Christ Consciousness. See where your connection to that is. See how you are allowing this to move you forward in your life. From this perspective, it is time to look at love. Look at how you are acting in the third dimensional realm that is based in love.

In the month of July you can take a look into the mirror and see how you are corresponding and interacting with others where love is concerned. You can look at your relationships and see how deep love is within these relationships.

So it is about taking a step back from the low dense, cacophonous third dimension in July and move within to the spirit within. The holy trinity spirit within. The spirit within that is love, guidance, and support from the universal divine force.

You may construe this as a dogmatic, religious message. That it is not. It is a message to look at love, a universal love. If in fact you are thinking that this is a dogmatic, religious message, see what is being triggered within you. Many are triggered with the use of the word God, Christ Consciousness. Many are triggered when they are asked to release their attachments to the third dimensional realm and move to the spirit within. You may ask the question; What is the spirit within me? So We ask you; where does love lie within you? Where are you attached to the third dimensional realm? Where are you attached to your relationships in the third dimensional realm?

Where are you attached to the cause and effect of the third dimensional realm that you let go of the universal realm of spirit, the realm of God, the divine realm of the Christ Consciousness? Can you find your connection to this and allow this to be your guiding force?

An exercise We you can begin with to discover the spirit within, is to look at your attachments to the third dimensional realm. Look at where you might be attached to what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm in the macrocosm of it and the microcosm of your own life.

Look now into the mirror and see if you can let go of what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm. We have come to you many times and asked you about your attachments to the third dimensional realm and to see if what is transpiring in it is guiding your life. Are you making decisions and choices based upon what is transpiring in the world outside of you?

Yes, you are here in your human incarnation in the third dimensional realm, yet are you of the third dimensional realm? You may have been asked this many times before. Where now can you release those attachments to the third dimensional realm?

We ask you to give it a try. Allow yourself to sit back and release the third dimensional realm. Move in to the spirit, the God Force, the Christ Consciousness within, to Love within. Perhaps you can define the God Force, God, the Christ Consciousness, divine spirit, simply as love, love within you.

So We ask you to simply move within to the depth and breadth of your heart space where love innately lies. Ask, how deeply do you love, honor and value you? It is time if you so choose, to detach energetically from the third dimension and move within.

Yes, you need to move about in your third dimension in your every day life, but it is about looking at your attachments to the third dimensional realm. Your month of July begins process of looking at your attachments to the third dimensional realm. Looking at how you may give your personal power away to what is transpiring in your third dimension. Giving away your personal power away. The powerfulness We are talking about is the powerfulness of the God Force, the Christ Consciousness, the effervescence of love within you. It is the powerfulness that you are God and God is you. It is all consuming.

Look at what is transpiring in relationships outside of you. Might you be giving your power away based upon what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm, and low dense vibrational activities?

Your month of July is about releasing and detaching from the third dimensional realm and moving into the depth and breadth of you. As you do this, look at your attachments to the third dimensional realm and as you do that see what feelings surface.

It is time to take a look into the mirror. Take a look at where you are giving your power away in the third dimensional realm outside of you. See where you may be giving your power away to individuals in the third dimension.

It is time to rise up and know that the universal life force is the power of love. And this love lies in the depth and breadth of your heart.
