A Message for October 2019

A Period of Advancement

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you as you move into an aspect of your life that you have never experienced before. You are moving into the advancement of the soul, an ever widening opening in the depth of your heart. Opening up to a depth and breadth of love that you have not experienced before.

As you move into this period of advancement in your month of October and into the last three months of your year of 2019, it is not so much an advancement in the third dimensional realm, it is an advancement of the soul. Opening up and releasing all that no longer serves you.

We have taken you through a process, asking you to release that which no longer serves you. Release the relationships that no longer serve you. Release all that lowers your resonance and vibration. We have asked you to look at the world outside of you and release your attachments to it. Look at your political systems, your environment, your systems of government, and see your attachments to all of this and see if this affects your life. Does it affect your life?

What We have been asking you to do is fully release that which no longer serves you. That which no longer serves your highest good, your endeavors and modalities that you bring out to the world in service of it. By doing this you move into a wholeness of self, to more deeply loving, honoring and valuing you. Loving, honoring and valuing you more deeply will propel you to release what no longer serves you, the relationships that no longer serve you and what lowers your resonance and vibration. In doing so what raises your resonance and vibration can enter your life. Relationships that raise your resonance and vibration can enter your life. This is the advancement. It is the advancement of the soul, the advancement of a deeper knowingness.

As you move into the month of October, and begin a period of advancement in your life, you will be activating your awareness to your soul's divine plan and connecting to it. You can fully become aware of your feelings surrounding this. Advancing your self in your soul's divine plan, Advancing yourself to a greater depth of love will move you to a greater depth of love of self, and open your heart space to allow love to enter your life.

Your month of October begins a period where a window and doorways are opening for you. It is a window into time. It is an open doorway into the new. As you move into the month of October into November and then December you will move through open windows and open doorways. You will see a clean slate before you. As you advance within the depth of your heart you raise your resonance and vibration to the new. It is now time to allow yourself to attract the new.

If in fact you see the old relationships that no longer serve you, old attachments to the third dimensional realm outside of you, the old behaviors that kept the old in place in your life, and you have raised your consciousness and awareness to a good majority of this, you can now begin to release it all and know you are safe.

As you open the window to the new, and look ahead of you and see the doorway opening to the new, this begins a period of advancement. It is advancement in your soul's divine plan. It is an advancement that many have never experienced before. The reason why many have never experienced this is because you have shut down your heart. Being shut down mires you in the old, in the old relationships. It mires you in the old behaviors that continue to produce the same old results.

It is now time to ask, what do I need? what do I want? What is most important to me so I can advance to a new level in my soul's divine plan, a new level of service? Am I a fully individuated, unique soul individuated from mom and dad? Am I individuated from my attachments to the third dimensional realm outside of me? Can I stand on my own and know that I exist? Or do I still depend on looking outside of me for validation and gratification? If you are, simply allow this and be where you are.

It is important to ask the question; Am I an individuated, unique adult, standing in my power and greatness ready to full open my heart and begin to advance in my soul's divine plan into the new?

We ask you to see how much of the old still permeates your life. What old relationships that you are attached to still permeate your life? What might you still be attached to in the world outside of you? Are you seeking those outside of you who you deem better than you, more intelligent than you, more advanced than you, and ask them to lead the way? There are those outside of you who are intelligent, who are unique. Yet, it is not about deifying them or putting them on a pedestal, thinking they will lead you to where you need to go. What We mean by you standing in your powerfulness and greatness if you being equal to those outside of you and they equal to you.

It is time to see who outside of you, you may be placing on a pedestal, deifying them. See if you are looking to them for all the answers and to show you the way. It is not so much about looking outside of you to get the answers. It is about looking at where you are with acceptance and compassion and seeing where you need guidance and support to move forward in the advancement in your soul's divine plan. Then seeking those who will support and guide you through the process and help you through your blind spots as you do with others. It is about equality.

It is most important as you, an individuated adult move forward in the advancement of your life, it is now time to see that your planet, your country, the place where you inhabit, is ready for advancement as well. It is now about seeing you as an ingredient to that advancement. What can you give to others where you are an ingredient to the advancement of the whole? In order for you to know that you are an ingredient to the advancement of the whole, is to move deeper within to see your talents, gifts and abilities that are unique, important, to the advancement of others, your planet, your community, and your soul family.

It is time to see you as a unique, individuated adult, and how you can be an ingredient to the advancement of others in their soul's divine plan.

As you enter your month of October, through your month of November into to December, doorways are opening for you. It is a window in time for advancement in your life and in your soul's divine plan. Now it is time for you to raise your resonance and vibration to see who you are and why you are here.
