A Message for October 2021

A Period of Releasing, Death and Dying

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you as you are opening up to new parameters in your life and opening up to in many ways, the reality of life. Beginning to look at relationships and opening to the truth in those relationships, more so moving into your truth about them. Elevating yourself beyond the third dimensional realm as we have asked you to look at your attachments to the third dimensional realm and detaching your-self from it. Then opening up to a grandness and greatness in a multi-dimensional way. For many this is what is transpiring now as you look at what is transpiring in the world outside of you.

In many ways for some it is very simple. In many ways it is more complex for most because of their deep, encrusted, old beliefs regarding life in the third dimension. What many are beginning to see is the fallacy and folly of the third dimensional realm. Many are beginning to see their addictions and thus looking at what isn't there or seeing the illusion of the third dimension.

We come to you at this wonderful and most glorious time to open your-self up to a brand new way of living within you as you now move into your month of October beginning the last three months of your year of 2021. This period will seem action packed for you. What We mean by this is what is transpiring within you will be action packed. So we ask you to look at what has transpired in your life in your year of 2021 up until this moment in time as you move into your month of October that begins a period of dying. Look at old beliefs, old wounding, old habits, patterns and rituals that have been revealed to you in somewhat subtle ways and for some in overt ways.

Your month of October signifies a period of death and dying. Allowing old habits, patterns and rituals and behaviors to begin to die. For some this has been revealed in many illuminating ways. For some have received the message in subtle ways. For many it has taken catastrophic aspects in their life to reveal the deep wounding and old habits, patterns and rituals and behaviors.

So as you move into your month of October you begin a period of dying that will lead into November through to the end of the year. You will then be able to see the beginning of the fruition of a new sense of self where you will no longer be repeating the old habits, rituals and behaviors that allow you to remain stuck in the illusion of the third dimensional realm. And more so the need to be loved outside of your-self.

What is transpiring now as you begin your month of October and move into November and December and the end of your year of 2021, is a period of death and dying. It is a period of releasing the old and seeing where you have challenges releasing the old. Seeing where you have challenges accepting what is transpiring in your life that has revealed more deeply the depth of wounding and old behaviors. What is important now is to have immeasurable amount of compassion for self so you can move into nurturing your-self through this process.

As you move through your month of October the process of death and dying will begin will transpire through to the end of your year.

It is important to see where you may be resisting shifting and changing and accepting what is transpiring quite possibly to remain in the old aspects of the third dimensional realm. Simply look at this resistance. What is also important is to look at your resistance to look at what is transpiring in the world outside of you so can detach your-self from it if you choose to.

Many are realizing the illusion of the third dimensional realm as well as the fallacy and folly of it. Understand you have made the choice to incarnate in this human form to experience what is transpiring in the third dimensional a realm to heal old habits, patterns and behaviors and wounding. Many are in a place of resistance to this because it is nudging them out of comfort zones to move into a depth or dearth of the unknown.

The reason why there is a resistance to releasing old habits, patterns and behaviors and detaching from the third dimensional realm is it will bring you to an unknown place. It is important to understand as you move into this unknown place, you have you. It is you who can create a new collective consciousness, not only with others outside of you but first and foremost within you. We have said this to you many times before.

It is a new collective consciousness inside of you that is independent of what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm. It is about seeing you, the glorious soul that you are, seeing you in the Christ Consciousness, seeing you for who you are. Not better, nor above others, or more intelligent than others but a unique individual that understands aspects of life in a deeper more profound way. Perhaps a deeper more profound "spiritual" way that is independent of the norms and belief systems that are in place in the third dimensional realm outside of you.

We are asking you to move into a multi-dimensional way of being where you are independent of the low, dense vibrational systems, old belief systems of the third dimensional realm. Moving into a place of greater understanding in a multi-dimensional capacity. This is what We have been asking you from the very first time We came to you.

So as each and every one of you move through this three month period of release, death and dying, quite possibly leading to a re-birth of the new, what is most important is to nurture your-self with an immeasurable amount of acceptance and compassion. And while doing so seeking others who you can connect with on a multi-dimensional basis who understand this process and can offer nurturing for where you are as you can give nurturing for where others are. Those who are opening to realizing and seeing the illusions of the third dimensional realm.

So We come to you and this time to simply reveal to you what will be transpiring in the last three months of your year of 2021. A period of dying. A period of death. A period of release, acceptance, compassion and a period of nurturing. We ask you to hear this and take it in if you so choose. This will also be a period of great love. A great love of self and others for where they are.

It is a period of moving into releasing what and who is most important for you to release so you can stand as an individuated, independent, unique child of God.

And now as We take our leave at this wonderful and most glorious time, We welcome you as you move into the last three months and the end of your year of 2021, to a period of time of releasing the old. Closing the door on the old and locking it shut.

What lessons have you learned easily and what lessons have you learned in a more challenging way?

What are you ready to see and accept with compassion and nurturing of self so you can move forward?

Can you accept responsibility for what has transpired in your life and move to a greater depth to know that what is transpiring in your life you have created on a multi-dimensional platform in order to learn what you needed to in this lifetime and take that and express what you have earned to others?

Express it to those who are resonating and vibrating on a similar if not the same level as you. Those who are open to a multi-dimensional way of being, quite possibly a way of being that they have never known before. Those who see the illusion of what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm outside of themselves, yet are not fighting to be right about what they think they know.

They are releasing the fight. Release the fight Dear Ones.

It is not about needing to tell others what you know and that you are right. It is about simply releasing what you need to release in these last three months of 2021. Learn the lessons that are most important for you to learn.

Many are moving deep within to understand the lessons based upon the need to be loved outside of themselves.

Release the Fight! Release the Fight!
