The Illusion of Life or Death

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and we come to you as you are moving to a new aspect of your life. Opening up to the grandness, greatness and wonderment of self. In many ways you are moving into the wonderment of life. At this time this may be a foreign concept for you Yet many are moving deeper into their heart space and opening to new parameter of your-self. And this is what We are suggesting you do, open up to greater parameters and aspects of you and thus opening to greater parameters and aspects of life and the world outside of you and seeing beyond the illusion. Beyond that illusion, you then can open up to greater depths of life as well. By looking beyond the illusion you move from a steadfast entrenchment in the third dimension. By moving beyond the third dimensional realm and into multi-dimensional facets you move beyond the hard and steadfast, right or wrong, this or that, either/or of the third dimension.

Moving beyond the third dimensional realm moves you into your imagination. The imagination in your heart space that knows there are aspects in this world, the universe and aspects beyond the third dimension into the fifth dimensional realm and beyond. All of this is based upon your soul's divine plan and where you are on your path to self mastery.

Moving deeper into the depth and breadth of your heart space heals the wounds of the child, the conditioning and programming.

As you move deeper into the depth and breadth of your heart space and begin to heal your wounds, you release layers of low dense vibration that is your wounding. By doing this your resonance and vibration raises. This is what is called ascension in this lifetime on your earthly plane. You are ascending to a greater aspect of your-self, a greater dimension of your-self, a greater depth of self.

As you move and ascend you are moving to a greater depth of self. The only way this is possible is by moving within the depth and breadth of your heart space and begin releasing layers of wounding around your heart that opens your-self up. These layers are of a dense low vibration. As you release these layers of wounding you then begin to ascend at a higher rate of vibration that you never have before. As you do this you open to multi-dimensional frequencies, beings, ideas and a multi-dimensional life. This is because you are a multi-dimensional being inhabiting in the human incarnation in the third dimensional realm.

It is about being in the world in a multi-dimensional capacity. This moves you beyond the illusion of the third dimension.

The illusion of the third dimension in its various forms is based in low, dense vibrational energy. It is based in the fear aspects of self. The illusion keeps you in the wounding of the child. It is the 5, 6 or 7 years old that is feeling frightened.

What is transpiring in the third dimensional realm outside of you through your mythical, deified leaders, is preying upon the wounds of the child. It is preying upon life or death. It is preying upon fear that you will either die or live. This is the fear of the child. As you move into the wounds of the child and look at the choices you are making in life through that child, you are making them based upon life or death. You are making choices based upon the wounded child running your life and informing your life. The wounded child only knows life or death, looking at mom or dad to keep them alive. This is one of the aspects of the illusion of your third dimensional realm.

The illusion that is perpetrated in your third dimensional realm preys upon fear and life or death, the fear of dying. What is transpiring in the world is not about raising your resonance and vibration with an excitation for life, it is based upon the fear of death. If I do this I may not die. If I do what they are telling me I may not die. This is all preying upon the wounds of the child.

What is most important to understand is this illusion. You are not that child. You have the memories of that child, the conditioning and the programming of that child but you are not that child. You are an adult living in this time/space continuum in the human form. You are not that child any longer. It is important to understand that many in your third dimensional realm have not moved beyond this, the fear of dying.

What the information in your third dimensional realm is preying upon is the wounds of the child. It is the wounds that says, I am still looking at mom and dad to keep me alive. So what is important as you move in this time/space continuum on your earthly plain in the low, dense vibrational aspects of the third dimensional realm, is to move if you so choose beyond the illusion. This is done by moving into the depth and breadth of your heart space and taking responsibility for your-self and differentiating between the wounds of the child and the adult.

This is why We continually ask, How does this make you feel? How does that make you feel? More than likely the feelings are those that have been suppressed and repressed from the wounds of the child. And why We ask you to move deeper into the depth and breadth of your heart space to see you. To see your greatness, your potential, and see who you are. And also seeing the wounds of the child.

What is most important as you move forward on your earthly plain, is to see where you are in relation to the wounds of the child. And how you are making decisions and choices based upon life or death.
