

Archangel Michael Speaks

You Are Safe in Your Truth Channeled by Jeff Fasano

At this time it is important to begin to be with your feelings. Move in to your heart space and allow yourself to move into the depth and breadth of your feelings. For those who have experienced endings, know that those endings are perfect. Everything is perfect in the divine plan of the earthly plain and the soul's plan. Everything and every wonderful and most glorious soul moves along in its time and no soul leaves until its time. It is perfect in the divine plan of each and every wonderful and most glorious soul who inhabits your earthly plain. It is important now to be with your feelings. Allow them and be in the comfort of them. Connect now with those who can support, assist and guide you through what is transpiring with your life.

In your year of 2017 you are moving to a place of community, harmony, peace and equality. Are you connecting in community, harmony, peace and equality with those who can support your highest good with where you are and with what is transpiring in your life? Thus moving into intimacy with others. Open your heart space and reveal aspects of yourself to others free of the constrictions of the mask, the mask you have created to fit in in your life. Can you connect with those who can open their heart space to you and comfort, support and guide you with whatever is transpiring in your life? Doing this allows you to open your heart space to know that you are safe to feel what you are feeling. You are safe to nurture your feelings. You are safe to be who you are. You are safe to be in your truth.

Many in your third dimensional realm look outside of themselves and wonder if they are safe, know that you are safe in your truth in the depth and breadth of your heart space. Open your heart to others. Comfort each other through times of strife and unrest. You are now forming the nucleus of an intimate relationship that is based upon you revealing who you truly are.

Know that you are supported and guided by multi-dimensional energies that are entering into your earthly plain that are moving into the depth and breadth of the un-truths to reveal them to the world.

It is most important now to reveal your heart dear ones. Reveal your truth to others. Know that you are safe to ask for support and guidance. Some of you are moving through some form of upheaval in your life. This will reveal exactly who you are within it and quite possibly change your life forever. It is important to know that those who have passed have passed. They are moving on their journey, their spiritual journey, their ascension journey. Their soul has left at the right and perfect time in their soul's divine plan. Be with your heart, be with your soul, be with your soul connections and your soul family. It is now important to connect on a multi soul basis with those who are like-minded, like in heart and moving in a similar direction as you.

It is time to move into community, harmony and equality with those whose intention is to raise their resonance and vibration, the resonance and vibration of the soul family and move into a new collective consciousness.

For many what is transpiring outside in the third dimensional realm and in your personal life is changing your collective consciousness. It is raising and deepening your consciousness to what is most important to you and quite possibly changing and shifting your life forever.
