

Archangel Michael Speaks Channeled by Jeff Fasano

The World 2020 Open to Love

From the Archangelic realm of Michael this is Michael and We welcome you at this wonderful most glorious time as you continue to move into the unknown. You are living in a time on your earthly plain where there is more unknown than known. We come at this time and ask you one and all to now open to love and into a power known as the self.

You are moving through times of great change, dramatic change upon your earthly plain. There will be those who will come to you for your assistance where love is concerned. You have been called to be in a place of love and We ask you first to define what love is for you.

You are now being called upon to give an inordinate amount of love because of the dramatic changes on the earthly plain. Many of you will be called upon to do this so it is time for you first to take stock as to where you are as it pertains to your love of self.

We ask you now to take stock of yourself.

What have you learned about love?

What you have learned about self love?

What you have learned about the love of others?

What have you done for yourself in the most recent past where love of self is concerned?

Do you have a resistance to receiving love?

It is important to see where you are truly honoring your talents and gifts and loving yourself. See if you are giving to yourself because giving to yourself nurtures you so you can learn to give to others. You cannot truly give to another unless you give to yourself. See now where you are giving to you as opposed to getting something from outside of yourself.

It is time now to move to a place of fully expressing yourself with love.

Ask: Am I now able to give love as I am called upon to give love, without attachment?

Thus taking the narcissistic Me out of the equation and moving towards the We and making that choice. It is time Dear Ones to move into worldliness.
