A Message for November 2021

A Grand Release

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you as you are now moving into new parameters in your life, new destinations in your life and new energetic destinations as you move from the old energy into the new energy. More so, releasing the old energy, the old habits, patterns, rituals and behaviors and then into the new energy.

What we mean by this as you are exiting the old as you move into your month of December then gradually into your new year of 2022, you are moving through the end of a period of releasing, letting go, death and dying.

So what is transpiring for many is you are moving through portals of time. Various different portals of time where you are revisiting aspects of your life, aspects of the old so you can see these aspects of the old life and bid them adieu. Close that chapter in your lifetime. Many are experiencing this in this lifetime and many experiencing this with past lifetimes. As you know, you come into this lifetime to heal aspects of the wounds from past lifetimes.

As you move through the final period of releasing, letting go and the death and dying of this, many are moving through these portals of time. Reliving past life situations so you can move through this and release it. This is a Grand Release so you can step into the new of your year of 2022. But what is most important as you undertake this, it is not something that is naturally and organically happening to you. It is happening naturally and organically for you. It is most important that you engage in this process as you move forward.

If you are thinking in your mindset, I am moving through this period of releasing and letting go and feeling my feelings through the death and dying period, this is not solely what is transpiring. What is transpiring now is humanity as a whole beginning to take responsibility for themselves. You are now moving into a period where humanity as a whole is taking responsibility for themselves. Taking responsibility for their well being, their personal life, and for where they are in this time / space continuum right now.

So in many ways, this process is about you taking responsibility for engaging in the process. As you engage in the process you then begin to engage in the process of life.

Life is not happening to you it is happening for you.

The only way life can happen and experience the aspects of life is to begin to engage in life. Engage in your process and engage with others.

The natural way of being is community, peacefulness, harmony and equality.

Where are you engaging in life?

Where are you engaging with others?

You have moved through a period on your earthly plain in these last two years of separation and isolation. You are now moving back into a place re-engaging life, re-engaging with people. So as you move through this process that began in your month of October, it is about engaging in the process. Engaging in your personal process. It is about becoming a part of. A re-connection to community, to a new collective consciousness that is about community, peacefulness, engagement with the world around you. Engaging with those around you and what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm that raises your resonance and vibration.

It is not about engaging in the illusion of the third dimensional realm, it is about engaging with reality. What is your reality? The engagement of your reality. The engagement of raising your resonance and vibration with others. Engaging with the new collective consciousness of community, harmony, equality. Where are you engaged now?

So as you move into your month of December and continue the process of releasing and letting go and through the death and dying of releasing and letting go, this will culminate at the end of your year. You will then move into your year of 2022, A Year of Engagement. A year of community, peace, harmony and equality in a new collective consciousness that you are creating with your soul family. It is about engaging with your soul family. Re-engaging with your efforts to raise the resonance and vibration of others and your-self.

Your year of 2022 will be a year of engagement. A year of re-engagement into the fullness and oneness of the whole. Completely, where you are concerned, releasing your attachments to the third dimensional realm outside of you. Completely seeing the illusion and folly of what is transpiring in your world today. It is about dis-engaging from that and re-engaging to the very purpose of life.

What is the purpose of life?

What is your purpose of life?

So it is opening up the depth and breadth of your heart space and moving to the engagement of the self. Moving to the engagement of the self, whereby asking your-self, where am I with what is transpiring in the world right now? Am I looking at the illusions of the third dimensional realm and partaking in them? Or, am I simply observing it and moving to a place of steadfast wholeness in the depth and breadth of my-self? And ask, what resonates and what doesn't for me? Where are you re-engaging with others on a level where you are moving at a high vibration of peace, community, harmony and oneness within you?

So as you move through your month of December continue if you so choose your process of releasing and letting go. As you move through these portals of time each and every one of you will experience them in your wake state and many in your dream state as well. In these portals of time you will be re-engaging these aspects of your life as a whole from past life experiences that have led you into this lifetime to heal what you need to heal and engage in that healing process.

As We said, What is most important is life is not happening to you, life is happening for you.
