A Message for August 2022 Freedom to Be Who you Are

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you as you are moving into the greatness and wonderfulness of self and moving into the second month of the second half of your year 2022. It is a very powerful month as you open into a greater depth of the power of self. Opening up to the depth of the power of who you are and the greater power of you being who you are. In many ways you have left behind the constraints of the old patterns, habits and rituals and behaviors.

You are now moving into your month of August, a freeing month, a month of freedom. The freedom to be who you are, who you want to be and the freedom to move into the beingness of self. It is a month of going out into the world and beginning to test that freedom. Beginning to test the beingness of who you are by freely opening your voice canals, your voice patterns and expressing who you are to those outside of you who quite possibly to those you may not have respected before or wanted to express yourself to.

So now it is about moving into the full beingness of yourself as you move into your month of August. Leaving the constraints of the old wounding behind you and now cultivating the depth of who you are, the new you, and the newness of yourself.

As you move into your month of August many are beginning to feel energetic surges in their body. These energetic surges are your resonance and vibration raising. They are bringing you to a place of the newness of you. You are feeling the lightness of the newness of you. And feeling the energy moving through your body as if you are moving at a speed within you that you have never moved at before. You are moving through a great enlightening period where you are moving into the brightness of yourself. It is an enlightenment of your self. Moving out of the darkness into the light. Opening up to the radiant white light in the depth and breadth of your soul space and allowing that to shine on the world. Many are feeling an energetic surge within their physical beingness and opening up to where the old is now released. The darkness, the old habits, patterns and rituals have been released and you are now looking at the new.

Your month of August is a month of opening up to the new. The newness of creation, the newness of what you would like to create out in the world. The newness of the new you. It is about opening up to the cultivation, the transformation and transition into the new you. Also being with the energy that will be flowing into your earthly plain. Many are feeling the jolt. These energies are for you. They will be moving in and beginning to clear out the old, actually the end of the old within your physical, mental and emotional beingness. This clearing process will begin for many as you move into your month of August and will continue throughout the month. In many ways you may even forget the old, the old habits patterns, rituals and behaviors. This is because they are being cleared from the memory of your DNA and the memory of you. The surges of energy that will be moving into your system in August will help this. You will now see the glass as full. You will now see what is in your life. What you will see is the gratitude for those in your life and also the gratitude you have for yourself in moving through these processes and the process We brought you in your months of April, May and June. A process to move into the full beingness of your self.

As you move into August, things to be aware of is to see what is transpiring in the world outside of you. Being aware of what is happening in the low, dense vibrational aspects of your third dimensional realm. And seeing what that may trigger, activate and affect you. Looking at what is transpiring in your governmental, political, corporate and financial systems. Continue to ask your self, what resonates and what doesn't.

As you have opened up to the new lightness of your self, the new beingness of you that in many ways has allowed you to detach from the low dense vibrational aspects of the third dimensional realm outside of you, from old relationships that no longer serve your highest good, and thus no longer in the sphere of your energy patterns. What We mean by this is many are now resonating at a high vibration. And many are going through the process of discernment. Discernment with those in your immediate life perhaps and seeing those who no longer resonate for you and see where you may be trying to continue in those relationships. Trying to fit a square peg in a round hole where these relationships are concerned.

What it all comes down to is you. What you say you want. What you are truly committed to in the depth and breadth of your heart space where relationships are concerned. What you are truly committed to in the world outside of you. This is why We always ask you to keep an eye on and be acutely aware of what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm outside of you. You are now in the new beingness of your self, the transformational process of the effervescent what light shining out on the world at a high vibrational level, where you are now the source of creating what you say you want in your life. Ask now, Am I allowing what is transpiring in the world outside of me to put a cloud over this and dictate how I live my life? It is most important to keep this in your beingness. In your month of August this is what We ask you to be aware of.

As you have moved to a high vibrational state within you and feel these energy surges, each and every one of you will be affected by them as they come from multi-dimensional realms. What they will be doing throughout your month of August is allow you to see more of the reality of your life. The truth of your life, the truth of your beingness. Ask your self now, Am I being sucked into what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm outside of me? Thus hindering this and still part of the old paradigm. Your old habits, patterns rituals and behaviors allowing you to look outside of you thinking that is the source based upon what they tell you is transpiring in the world. It is most important to differentiate you from the outside world, the uniqueness of your beingness. Seeing that irregardless of what is transpiring in the world, in your governmental, financial, corporate systems, it is most important to remain in the fullness of your beingness.

Your month of August is about shining that bright light onto the world and begin to test it. Test the new you. Test your self expression with love, with mindfulness. Your month of August is about testing the new you out in the world, your beingness in the world. It is not so much about what you need to do to test that, test you beingness. Simply move out into the world and be who you are. Allow your self to express who you are. Test being, in relationship to doing. Ask the question, what do I need to do and where to I need to be out in the world? Doing this in the full beingness of myself.

Many are feeling a new powerfulness or empowerment within in them. Casting aside the old habits, patterns, rituals and behaviors. Casting aside the old wounds. Casting aside where your old wounding originated. Casting aside your attachments to Mom and Dad. Casting aside your attachments to the third dimensional realm outside of you. Casting aside your attachments to old relationships. Caste aside all of this and move into the full beingness of you.

As We said, these energy surges will move in in your month of August and will begin to flush out the old within you. And raise your level of resonance and vibration to the new beingness of you. Many are moving into states of elation when this transpires. The elation is, this is the new me, this is who I am. I am moving into a great level of loving, honoring and valuing who I am.

Take inventory. See who you are. See what you have accomplished. See your powerfulness.

As you move into your month of August and open up your heart space to receive love. We have asked you many times before, how open is your heart space to now receive love as you move out into the world projecting love? Are you projecting love? The new you is love, community, harmony and equality.

As We have said to you once before, by detaching your self from what is transpiring in the third dimensional realm outside of you but remaining aware of it, is the beginning of creating a new collective consciousness. Where you are now in your month of August, being you, it is from this foundation that will lead to creating a new collective consciousness through the beingness of you in the world outside of you.
